TO WED INDIANA GIRL
Half across the American continent and then half across the Pacific ocean, word comes of the engagement and approaching marriage of Mr. Rolla K. Thomas, of the Honolulu Y. M. C. A., and Miss Ruth Reeves of Anderson, Indiana.

Both are graduates of the state university of Indiana. Mr. Thomas has made his home here for some two years and has innumerable friends, who will look forward to welcoming the bride upon their arrival.

News of the engagement and approaching nuptials came in the following clipping from an Indiana paper:

"Distance is no enchantment, but the old world was not big enough to contain the feeling which separated Rolla Thomas, of this city, and Miss Ruth Reeves, of Anderson, Indiana, and after tripping across the great Pacific from Honolulu, where he is stationed in Y. M. C. A. work, he comes 'home' and before returning to his Hawaiian abode he will take back with him Mrs. Thomas. All of which is another mark credited to college romances of the Indiana University campus."

"Rolla arrived here Saturday and the news of his engagement was made at a party given in Anderson, Friday evening. The wedding will take place early next month."

"The Anderson Herald of Saturday had an account of the engagement announcement, as follows: 'One of the prominent social events of early July will be the marriage of Miss Ruth Reeves, daughter of Mr. C. R. Reeves, to Rolla Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Thomas, of Vincennes, the announcement of which was made by Miss Reeves Friday evening at her home, 826 West Sixth street.'

"The Reeves home was artistically decorated in white and yellow flowers, white and yellow being the color scheme at a six o'clock dinner."

"The dinner table was unique with its beautiful centerpieces of flowers. At each cover was a lei, characteristic of Hawaii. From each lei to the centerpiece a yellow satin ribbon was strung at the end of which was a small card that announced the approaching event."

"The bride-elect is a graduate of the Anderson schools and also Indiana University. She is a member of the Kappa Gamma sorority. For the past two years she has been an instructor in the public schools."

"Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the State University and a member of the Epsilon Club."

"The wedding will take place at Anderson early next month and the couple will leave shortly afterwards for Honolulu where they will reside."

"Guests at the announcement party Friday evening were Mrs. Nellie Burnett, Miss Frank Kimball, Mrs. M. J. Roselle, Mrs. Herman Hewitt of Marion, Miss Harriett O'Meara, Miss Katherine Langell, Miss Blanche Woody, Miss Mary Reeves and Miss Josephine Thomas of Indianapolis."

MISS DOROTHY HARKER ENTERTAINS
Mrs. Lloyd Brett of Schofield barracks was the honor guest at a very delightful informal sewing tea on Wednesday afternoon given by Miss Dorothy Harker. This pleasant party was given to introduce Miss Lloyd Brett to some of the Honolulu girls. Sewing and knitting passed the afternoon most charmingly, then refreshments were served.

Miss Harker's guests were Miss Lloyd Brett, Miss Ruth McChesney, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Miss Maud Ballentyne, Miss Dorothy McKee, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Miss Margaret Grey, Miss Louise Clark, Miss Dorothy Palmer,

Miss Ruth Reeves of Anderson, Indiana, who will become the bride of Mr. Rolla K. Thomas of Honolulu early in July, the wedding taking place at Anderson, after which the couple will come here.

Miss Isabel Baker, Miss Katherine Raymond, Miss Carolyn Raymond, Miss Vivian Buckland, and Mrs. Walter Reesman.

MRS. E. AUSTIN JONES HONORS MISS GLADYS HOBSON

Mrs. Edwin Austin Jones entertained with a luncheon at Lanikahe today, honoring her sister, Miss Gladys Hobson, who is here visiting with Mrs. Jones. Miss Hobson has just graduated from the University of California and comes back to renew the acquaintances and friendships of childhood, for Miss Hobson and her family are sons and daughters of Hawaii, all having been born here.

The table was extremely pretty with a deep floral bowl filled with pink and white sweet peas and maiden hair fern. Dainty name cards marked each cover, and jolly and happy was the luncheon, for the guests were all friends in girlhood. Mrs. Jones' guests were Miss Gladys Hobson, the honor guest; Miss Mary von Holt, Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Margaret Thurston, Miss Nora Sturgeon, Miss Alice Hoogs, Miss Ramona Marks, Miss Eleanor Gartley, Mrs. Dickson Nott and Mrs. David Olson.

THE SCAVENIUS PIANO RECITAL
The Lani Theater, Lanikahe, will be the setting for a concert to be presented by Mr. Fritz Scavenius on Wednesday evening, June 28.

Last winter, every Tuesday morning Mr. Scavenius presented a number of selections of the different composers, each week covering a different line of musical thought. The musical

AN ENGAGEMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Mrs. Charles Dana Wright's residence at Royal Grove, Waikiki, was the scene of a very pretty tea on Thursday afternoon given in honor of Miss Serena Maddux, whose engagement to Captain Eugene Robinson of Schofield Barracks was announced during the afternoon. The tables were decorated with pink roses and gladioli, and individual French bouquets of tiny pink roses and sweet peas with a tiny cupid attached. The large bouquet of roses was drawn for and enclosed in it was an envelope containing the names of the happy couple. The usual hour of Red Cross work was finished and tea was served on the lanai. The following guests were present: Miss Nina Berkley, Miss Margaret McKinley, Miss Margaret Merrill, Miss Harriet Crumpton, Miss Halie Sampson, Miss M. Samson, Miss Jean Porterfield, Miss Margaret Ayers, Miss Irma Wodehouse, Miss Martha McChesney, Miss Evelyn Holmes, Mrs. Charles Lucas, Jr., Mrs. Charles Wheaton, Mrs. E. E. Dodge, Mrs. Stanton Wyatt, Mrs. Robert Scott, Mrs. R. Woods, Mrs. M. Ables, and the guest of honor, Miss Serena Maddux.

MRS. T. EDGAR ROBINSON A BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. T. Edgar Robinson was a bridge hostess on Wednesday of this week at the Country Club. After scores were counted it was found that Mrs. Donald Ross had scored highest, with Miss Hewlings a close second.

The guests enjoying Mrs. Robinson's hospitality were Mrs. Matthew Graham, Mrs. Antonio Perry, Mrs. C. F. Schmutzler, Miss Woodford, Mrs. Donald Ross, Mrs. E. J. Tiffenfield, Mrs. Philip Frear, Mrs. A. L. Andrews, Miss Blanche Soper, Mrs. Harold Hayselden, Miss Hewlings, Mrs. J. Jamerson, Mrs. L. C. Howland, Mrs. Donald Currie, Mrs. Kenneth Bond and Mrs. H. Savage.

A COMING WEDDING OF INTEREST

Next Friday evening will occur the wedding of Miss Ruth Richards and Mr. Frank E. Midkiff at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards. Miss Richards' maid of honor, Miss Angela McManus, is coming from Boston to attend the ceremony. The bridesmaids will be Miss Ruth Anderson, Miss May Sutherland, Miss Edna Curtis, Mr. Arthur Wyman will support the groom, while Mr. Harry Marsh, Mr. Harry Lucas and Mr. John Murker Watt will be the ushers.

Little Polly Richards and Herbert Richards will be the ribbon-bearers for their sister.

It is to be a home wedding with friends and relatives in attendance. Rev. J. J. Midkiff comes from the mainland to read the marriage service that unites his son with the Honolulu girl.

Both young people are justly popular, with friends galore in Honolulu. The date of the wedding is uniquely important, for it is the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Richards, parents of the bride.

MISS MARIE BALLENTYNE HONORS MISS RUTH RICHARDS

Miss Ruth Richards, whose wedding will occur at the end of this month, was the guest of honor on Monday afternoon at a "skirt-hanger" shower given by Miss Marie Ballentyne. The hangers were decorated with dainty sachet bags and were presented to the bride in a dainty basket, arranged with tulle and orange blossoms. Sewing on the lanai was the diversion for the afternoon.

Miss Ballentyne's guests were Miss Ruth Richards, Miss Violet Atherton, Miss Pauline Schaefer, Miss Dorothy Guffey, Miss Dorothy Harker, Miss Marie Ballentyne, Mrs. James F. Morgan, Jack Guard and Mrs. Stanley McKenzie.

MRS. W. L. STANLEY A BRIDGE HOSTESS

Mrs. William L. Stanley was a bridge hostess on Tuesday afternoon. Also several interesting rubbers were played in the parlors.

Mrs. Stanley's guests were Mrs. James Harkness, Mrs. Robert Lange, Mrs. Grace Watson, Mrs. F. L. Morong, Miss Alexander G. Hawes, Mrs. Frank Hasteed, Miss Hewlings and Miss Dahford.

MRS. ALEXANDER LINDSAY HONORS MRS. JAMES WILDER

Mrs. James Wilder was the guest of honor at a very pretty garden luncheon on Wednesday at Lanikahe, over which Mrs. Alexander Lindsay presided as hostess. Covers were laid for fifteen guests. Knitting and social chat made for a charming afternoon.

HAWAIIAN TEA SMART EVENT

ST. PAUL, Minn.—The Land of Sunshine, Hawaii, was vividly portrayed at the University Club this afternoon at the large tea given by Mrs. Frederick Delos Monfort of the Aberdeen.

Decorations characteristic of the islands adorned the rooms and the large ballroom where the guests were received was a veritable bower of yellow, the predominant color in the appointments. Huge Darwin tulips, jonquils, iris and snapdragons in the various shades of yellow made an effective background for the beautiful gowns of the guests. Gift baskets and crystal vases on golden standards with tall snapdragons adorned the four corners and center of the room, and on the walls the "leis" or Hawaiian wreaths, also in yellow and a deeper shade of orange, were placed. Even in the refreshments the Hawaiian suggestion was not forgotten and the bombons bore the inscription "aloha."

A Hawaiian orchestra, stationed in one corner of the room, played a program. Mrs. Monfort, who is of the attractive blonde type, was lovely in a gown of white satin, a Lucille model, embroidered in a brilliant shade of blue. The bodice was of rose point and duchesse lace elaborated with rhinestones, and extending from the waistline at the back was a long-pointed train. Instead of the conventional bouquet, she carried a hand bouquet of yellow calla lilies, tied with yellow tulle.

MR. AND MRS. METZ COMPLAINMENTED GUESTS

Complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Philip Metz, who are again enjoying a brief visit in San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. James Rupert Mason presided at an informal dinner last evening. Mrs. Metz was Miss Norma Mack, and her San Francisco friends, made during the interesting months of the exposition, when her father was at the head of the New York Commission, are rejoicing in the opportunity of greeting her again. Mr. and Mrs. Metz were married some weeks ago in Buffalo, and are still on their honeymoon, which has included a visit to Honolulu, where they were in a continuous round of gaiety. They were here for only a day or two en route to the Hawaiian Islands.

Miss Ethel Maroney, Neesra, Philip Beker, and Martin Judge, with Mr. and Mrs. Metz and the hosts, were seated about the flower-decked table for last night's dinner.—San Francisco Chronicle.

SAN FRANCISCO DINNER

Mrs. Ernest Hueter was dinner hostess to an unusually interesting assemblage last evening. The party comprised the coterie of women, who, with Mrs. Hueter, took a trip to Honolulu a few months ago.

Last evening Mrs. Hueter assembled this group about a charmingly decorated dinner table, laden with spring flowers of every description. Happy reminiscences of the voyage made the evening pass most delightfully.

Those invited by Mrs. Hueter included Mesdames J. D. McGilvray, M. J. Savage, Maurice A. Gale, Samuel J. Eva, E. A. Christenson, Ferdinand Hueter, Thurlow White, William Prentice, A. Remmens Perger, James Hawkins, Thomas Ross, Misses Lorel ta Boyd, and Lettie Hollins.

Mr. and Mrs. Hueter will entertain with a dinner-dance at the Palace Hotel next Thursday night. The affair will be complimentary to Harry Maudrell.—San Francisco Chronicle, June 12.

MRS. ANTONIO PERRY HONORS MRS. SAMUEL TAY

Mrs. Samuel Tay was the guest of honor at a luncheon on Friday of this week over which Mrs. Antonio Perry presided. Covers were placed for six guests.

MRS. DONALD CURRIE A LUNCHEON HOSTESS

Mrs. Donald Currie was a luncheon hostess on Friday of this week. The table was daintily with a basket filled with shell-pink hibiscus and asparagus vine. Knitting was the diversion for the afternoon. Mrs. Currie's guests were Mrs. Alexis J. Gignoux, Mrs. George K. Brown and Mrs. David Thrum.

"These appliances keep me out of the kitchen"

"I believe I have found in electrical household devices the solution of the servant problem."

"Electricity serves me better."

"Take Breakfast, for example:

"It is much more satisfactory to prepare the coffee, toast and eggs right in front of me on the dining room table. An electric percolator, toaster and grill does the trick."

"And, too, I find I have so much more time for recreation and the more important things."

"Expensive?"

"Not a bit!"

"You know electricity is about the only thing we buy which has not gone up in price!"

"I bought my appliances at
